Pastor's Corner:

*Roses are red, violets are blue,
Sugar is sweet, and so are you!*

So, thousands of children have written in each other's poetry books for centuries. No other flower is as highly cherished as the rose. No other flower fragrance can compare to that of the rose. Its beauty and scent are unparalleled. As such, the rose has been used as a symbol of love. The beloved receives a bouquet of red roses. A single long-stemmed rose is seen as a gift on many festive occasions like graduations and on more solemn occasions, such as funerals, where family and friends often place roses on the casket as a final farewell before the casket is lowered into the grave.

The rose is also used as a symbol of God's love for humanity through Jesus Christ. Jesus is the rose. During Christmas, we will sing about the rose that grew in the cold of winter and at the darkest midnight hour. God's love for us through Jesus Christ is the only thing that remains when we are stripped of everything; if not before, then certainly when we stand at the gate of death.

*O Savior, child of Mary, who felt all human woe;
O Savior, king of glory, who triumphed o'er our foe:
bring us at length, we pray,
to the bright courts of heaven and into endless day.*

The Danish fairy tale-teller, H.C. Andersen, uses the rose to symbolize God's love through Jesus Christ as a life-giving force in the fairy tale called, "The World's Loveliest Rose." The queen is on her deathbed! (A picture of the worst possible situation.) But, the world's loveliest rose can save her from death. The most beautiful roses from all over the world are now brought before her, but, alas, not even the loveliest has any effect.

Only when her son reads from the Bible about Christ do her eyes see the rose, the true rose. "And a rosy glow went over the Queen's cheeks; her eyes became so large, so clear, for she saw, rising from the pages of the Book, the world's most beautiful rose, the image of the one that sprang from Christ's blood on the tree of the Cross. 'I see it!' she said. 'Never dies he who sees that rose, the loveliest on Earth!'"

Therefore, the story my colleague Gurli Vibe Jensen once told is also almost tragicomic. She says that once, someone wanted to buy a nativity scene. The nativity scene, along with all its contents, was otherwise intact, but the baby Jesus was missing. He was definitely not in His place in the manger. The salesperson, eager to wrap up the business, said, "Never mind that! No one will notice that Jesus is not there!"

But he was mistaken. Indeed, we often act as if Jesus is not present, and many Christmas celebrations might seem as if it doesn't matter at all whether He came to us or not. However, if Jesus had not come, there would be no hope for the world. Without Jesus, the future would be just as dark as we often make it out to be. However, with Jesus' coming, hope has been ignited. And that has managed, and continues to lift millions of people from a bleak and hopeless future. With the coming of Jesus, a life-giving force has been given to us, which

*Brightness ends the darkness
That kept the earth in fear.
True God and yet true man,
He came to save his people
From earth's dark night of sin.*

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
Pastor Charlotte Berg

President's Message

After quieter summer months at the Church the fall months have seen lots of activity. The two small flat roofs at the north end of the Church were replaced in September which will hopefully take care of problems with leaks during chinooks.

In October a heat-reflecting film was put on the clear glass window above the balcony. Then the stained glass window was put back in. The reflective film should help keep the lead strips that hold the stained glass window together from getting sun-damaged. Also in October we had our fall clean-up in and around the Church. There were 19 people who came to help out and much was accomplished.

Also in October and November, over several weeks, the City of Calgary came and revised our curb and extended our handicapped parking area. However, they have yet to re-install one of the signs they took down. Also a City crew came to replace the water line between the street and the old house (#214). However, the line turned out to be copper rather than lead, so a replacement was not necessary. Now if they would just come back and fix the holes in the lawn!

At the end of October Pastor Charlotte had surgery on her left hand (her good hand). She is on medical leave for 6 weeks, returning to work on December 12th. The surgery was successful and she is doing well. However, Charlotte is quite incapacitated. To fill in for our Church services and to provide pastoral care in both English and Danish, we have been blessed to have retired Pastor Claus Franck and his wife Marete come from Denmark to fill in for Charlotte. They are staying close by the Church and Pastor Franck can be reached by calling 1-825-561-5307 or by emailing the Church at office@danishlutheranchurch.ca

In November we had our annual Christmas Bazaar at the Danish Canadian Club. (The first bazaar was held in 1965, so this was our 59th annual bazaar.) The Bazaar was well attended and a number of food items sold out. We had a large wonderful and enthusiastic group of volunteers! A very big "Thank You" to all who gave of their time and skills to help out. We netted approximately $13,000 from the Bazaar this year.

Coming up in December we have lots of festive events: these are Julestue on December 2nd, a concert of Scandinavian Christmas music with Grammy-award winning violinist Mads Tolling on December 9, our Star of David program followed by a Christmas party in the basement hall on the evening of December 17, two afternoon Christmas Eve services, a Christmas morning service, and a New Year's Eve service. We hope to see you at these events, and please remember to invite your family, friends and neighbours along!

SPECIAL SERVICES

"Star of David"/Christmas Tree Party, December 17th at 5:00 pm

Our traditional "Star of David" service is filled with lots of Advent and Christmas hymns, and it reaches its peak at the lighting of our big Star of David. Afterwards pizza will be served in the Hall, followed by the Christmas Tree Party, where we dance around the Christmas Tree while singing more Christmas songs. The night ends with treat bags for the children.

Christmas Eve December 24th - The service at 2:00 pm this year will be in English. At 3:30 pm the service will be in Danish. There will be no communion.

Sunday, February 11th starting at the 10:00 am service, we will, true to tradition, celebrate Fastelavn/Shrove. Fastelavn is the Danish adaptation of the German Fastenabend, meaning "fasting evening." It refers to the last evening before the forty days of Lent, leading up to Easter, begin. Technically, we should not speak of Fastelavns/Shrove Sunday, as Lent only begins on Ash Wednesday. So, Wednesday in the week after Shrove Sunday is, therefore, the first day of Lent. On this day, it was once customary to go to the church door. There the priest would draw a cross on one's forehead with oil mixed with the ashes of the palm branches used on Palm Sunday the year before.

The season of Epiphany had been a festive time with many Christmas parties. It concluded with a grand feast with lots of food, often including the tradition of breaking the barrel. The "katten af tønden" or "cat out of the barrel" was a symbolic custom where a black cat was often used to represent the devil in those days.

Poor cat.

However, before the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday came Collopy Monday, where collops of left-over meat from the day before were served, and the fat from the meat was used on Pancake Tuesday for making the pancakes. Thus, all meat, eggs and white flour were used up so they could be of no temptation in the actual fasting period of Lent. For the next 40 days, until Palm Sunday, a period of restraint and fasting was observed in both small and large households. It is said that such a dietary pause is beneficial, not for God's sake but for one's own.

Fastelavn is also the Danish counterpart of North American Halloween, so we hope to see a lot of children and adults all dressed up for the fun of that Sunday! After the service, all the above-mentioned traditions will be merged together as some collops of ham with pancakes will be served. Afterwards, we will beat the black cat (stuffed) out of the barrel. The day ends with sweet buns made from the last of the white flour.

Come and be part of the fun!

CHURCH EVENTS

Guest Speakers

We know it is there! We might have donated to it or even volunteered there! But what is a Food Bank?

Our first guest speaker in 2024, Wendy Cranch, Community Engagement Development Coordinator, of the Calgary Food Bank, will present the historical background of Calgary Food Bank, its programs and services, and how the warehouse works. January 30th at 7.30 pm in our downstairs hall, we are in for an interesting and informative evening about one of the most needed workplaces in Calgary. The night is free, but donations to the Food Bank are always welcome. Coffee and tea are served.

Once upon a star —can be a poetic journey through space, but it can also be a life-saving travel to a hospital in a red helicopter! February 27th at 7.30 pm, our second guest speaker, Sarah Eccleston, Manager of Community Engagement for STARS, will be presenting the history of STARS. She will provide an overview of the STARS organization and share mission stats. The night is free, but donations to STARS air ambulance are welcomed. Coffee and tea are served.

CHURCH GROUPS

Study Group: Grundtvig, who was he?

In the past year, we studied how hymns in the Danish hymnbook were closely connected to what happened in Danish secular and religious history. Everyone who has opened the Danish hymnbook, or "Grant Me God" (the book of Danish hymns in English translation), can't help noticing how many of the hymns are written by the Danish pastor, poet, and politician Nicolai Frederik Severin Grundtvig (1783-1872). His thoughts have left deep marks in the world of folk high schools and, thereby, in how Danes understand themselves as a people and as Christians. We'll get to know Grundtvig better by looking at different periods in Grundtvig's life and at a couple of hymns from his own hand. We'll meet in our downstairs hall on Thursday, January 11th and 25th. and February 8th and 22nd at 10:00 am to noon.

Charlotte Berg

Sing-Alongs

In this sweet Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany season, occasionally exercising our abdominal muscles is good. Therefore, we gather in the downstairs hall of our church on Thursdays, December 14th, January 18th, and February 15th, to delve into our songbooks for Christmas and winter songs and whatever else we feel like singing. Everyone is warmly welcome!

Movie Lunches

1st Thursday of the month at 11:00 am, we'll meet in our downstairs hall and turn it into a movie theatre of meaningful and thought-provoking movies. Free popcorn, coffee and tea are served! However, if you need something more substantial, please remember to bring your own lunch bag!

Viking Girls

In September, we had a lovely afternoon in Rita C's backyard and then coffee time together around her dining room table. In October, we collected winter hats, scarves, mittens, and socks to go to a school in a low-income neighborhood in Calgary where some children show up inadequately dressed for the weather. This came to 5 bins full of warm winter gear! In November we planned our baking for the Bazaar and then watched an interesting documentary on struggles in life. Many of our members also helped out with the Bazaar on November 18th.

On December 1st, we will meet to make Christmas table centerpieces out of fresh green and various materials. Some of these will be sold at Julestue and some will go home with our members. Anyone is welcome to come to our meetings at 1:30 pm on the first Friday of the month. Upcoming meetings are December 1st, January 5th, and February 2nd. Contact Karen for information and reminders at president@danishlutheranchurch.ca.

Margit and Karen

Ladies Auxiliary

The ladies are not meeting until the New Year. Our meetings will be on January 15th and February 12th. All ages are welcome to join our fun and fellowship even if your not crafty! Not all of our group makes crafts. Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year with your family and friends!

Louise Dresen

dresenlouise@yahoo.com or 403-242-7894

Crafter's Group

We are a group who meet and do handicrafts together, either our own projects or something for the Church Christmas Bazaar. Meetings are the 3rd Wednesday of the month at 7:30 pm, that is Jan 17th, Feb 21st. There is no meeting in December. Contact Karen or Charlotte for location or questions, email president@danishlutheranchurch.ca and pastor@danishlutheranchurch.ca, respectively.

Sunday School Notes

Our Sunday School meets the first and third Sundays of the month. The past 2 months, we have been learning about practicing our faith --- with lessons on hospitality, giving, and prayer, so far. We hope to the children participate in the Star of David program on December 17th. As well, we took in $747 from the fruit and veggie auction in October. This money will be used to pack shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child, but this will be done in January. Karen

Missions Prayer Group:

This group has members from at least 3 Lutheran congregations. Each month there is a country of focus. We pray for Christian work there and for other needs in that place. Meetings are December 15th, January 26th, and February 23rd at 1:30 pm. If you are interested contact Karen at president@danishlutheranchurch.ca for meeting details, info, and materials.

Missions Moments:

We have yet to hear anything further about our application to sponsor a Christian Afghan refugee family of 4. We had hoped that they would be here in 2023. However, the application is still in process at the Canadian refugee and immigration office. We have asked our Member of Parliament for Crescent Heights to make enquiries for us. Please continue to pray for approval for this family to come to Calgary.

They are at very high risk of severe persecution if they are sent back to Afghanistan.

Three members of our Refugee Resettlement Committee, Ellen, Dale & Anna, have been volunteering with SWARM (South West Alberta Refugee Mission). They help gather donations of furniture and household items and then deliver these to newcomers to Calgary — people from Ukraine, Syria, Afghanistan, and elsewhere. This past summer Metha Kjeldsen and her former landlady donated a number of pieces of furniture to SWARM and some of the furniture was then delivered by Dale & Anna to two men who are refugees from Syria. Thank you ladies for your kind donations!

A number of ladies in our Congregation knit pneumonia prevention vests year round. This year they have knit a grand total of 236 vests. These are sent overseas through Canadian Lutheran World Relief to parts of the world where the nights are chilly or there is winter weather. Children there are vulnerable to get chilled and contracting life-threatening pneumonia. An extra layer of warmth around their chests can prevent this. If you are interested in knitting these vests please contact the Church for the instructions. Also, donations of yarn for our knitters are most welcome, even if it is only a scrap a meter or two in length.

Women's World Day of Prayer, March 1st, 2024

"I Beg You... Bear With One Another in Love"

Ephesians 4:1-3

The program for this year's prayer day was written by a group of ecumenical Christian Palestinian women in response to the passage from Ephesians 4:1-7. It calls us to bear with each other in love, despite all difficulties and oppression. They reflected collectively on this theme from the context of their suffering as Palestinian Christian women. They hope to inspire other women around the world to bear with one another in love during troubled times.

Online Market Update:

The items you ordered online have been shipped from Denmark. We are expecting delivery of these items near the end of November. You will be contacted by email when your order is ready to be picked up at the Church. Everything should be here in time for Christmas!

Bazaar 2023 Report:

Our Christmas Bazaar on November 18 at the Danish Canadian Club was very well attended, helped in part by mild weather. We had a great group of volunteers helping out which is wonderful. All of our lunch items sold out — the European hotdogs, open-faced sandwiches, layer cakes, Danish pastry, and Danish rice pudding. Sales at the baking and craft booths were also brisk. All of the 6 gift baskets prizes were claimed by November 21. And it looks like net profit from the Bazaar was right around $13,000. (There was no Christmas lottery this year.)

Thank you to all of you who prepared for the Bazaar in various ways, donated items, volunteered, and attended that day. It was a lovely and worthwhile event!

Update on Kristina's Chaplaincy Studies

Some of you may be aware that I have gone back to continue the chaplaincy studies I began in my 20's (and now I'm 51). When I started in my 20's I came to think that maybe the Lord meant me to help people and make a difference in other ways. Having many areas of interest, I did a degree in nonprofit management and later in adult community education, all while working at different jobs.

Much has happened in the last few years, work-wise. My family and I, along with a colleague, also started a nonprofit, called the Football Hockey Link, which is still running. But through my experiences with work, and the FHL, I have begun to think, "Does the Lord mean me to go back to chaplaincy studies?"

This was something my beautiful mom said she had been praying about and she was happy to hear I was praying about it again. So I prayed for about a year asking the Lord to please open the doors and show me His will. Through interesting work situations and then finding out that Ambrose University in Calgary has chaplaincy studies, the Lord provided support. I was able to start these studies by doing a course a semester while continuing to work. It has also been interesting during this past year to hear many different things through those already in ministry and others in the chaplaincy field

After I get my chaplaincy certification I pray that I will be able to work with seniors; perhaps working in a few ways to encourage and bring out their stories of how the Lord has moved in their lives. Or maybe I could work with youth in sports, which I have been doing already for fourteen years through FHL. We'll see where the Lord leads.

I want to thank those of you who are praying for and have helped me. And this is the reason for this update. I hope to share again as time goes on. I am praying and trusting the Lord to lead. God's blessings on all of you! Our family keeps all of you in our prayers.

Krista Taldorf

p.s. By the way, you may notice and hear at times that I'm using my full name more, "Kristina". This is something I promised mom I would do when registering for my studies. My full name is actually Kristina Manuela, but Krista still good too :)
